

UNICLA INTERNATIONAL TEAMS UP WITH EDUTORQUE

One of Singapore's leading automotive accessories wholesaler, Unicla International, has joined EduTorque in 2014 as a sponsor towards automotive and motorsport education in Singapore.

This homegrown company has been the leading specialist for the provision of original, OEM or replacement parts in the automobile air-conditioning and accessories industry over many years.

"I am very happy to announce our partnership with Unicla," said EduTorque director, Calvin Lim. "The company has been a leading distributor of major automotive parts and accessories, and they are committed to extending their expertise in educating youths about the automotive industry. This alignment of objectives makes Unicla an excellent partner."

Unicla also spoke of this partnership with EduTorque.

"We are delighted to join hands with Edutorque as their objectives are in line with our commitment to nurture and empower future talents through educational programs," said Mr Eddie Chua, Director of Unicla International Pte Ltd. "We are in the best position to support EduTorque's programmes with the best tools and knowledge, to help discover individual qualities and encourage innovation for the Singapore automotive industry."

Not Just Quality. Delphi Quality.

As the distributor for leading brands such as Delphi, Expert Tools and many more, Unicla has always taken a strong stand towards education in the industry. Mr Arnold Ho, Marketing Manager of Unicla, is also pleased with the new partnership.

“We care for the holistic development of our younger generation and believe they will benefit greatly through an enriching exposure of the latest in modern automotive accessories and tools.”

ABOUT UNICLA INTERNATIONAL PTE LTD

Unicla International Pte Ltd started out from humble beginnings at an old shop house along Serangoon Road where Tat Ee Engineering Works was established. Tat Ee Engineering Works used to be just a small workshop manufacturing air conditioning pulleys for automotive use. Over the years, the company has grown to be one of the leading stocklist and wholesaler for automotive air conditioning parts and accessories in Singapore.

Today, Unicla International Pte Ltd, is an authorized stocklist for many leading brands names by offering a complete range of Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM) products for all automobile needs.
